

STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA

PROCLAMATION

INSURANCE AWARENESS DAY JUNE 28, 2023

WHEREAS, insurance is important in many aspects of our daily lives; and

WHEREAS, policies ranging from auto, life, home and health offer a layer of protection during life's unfortunate events; and

WHEREAS, North Dakota is home to 30 domestic insurance companies and over 5,800 licensed agents dedicated to serving consumers; and

WHEREAS, Insurance Awareness Day is a reminder for individuals and businesses alike to review their insurance coverage to ensure it is the right coverage for them; and

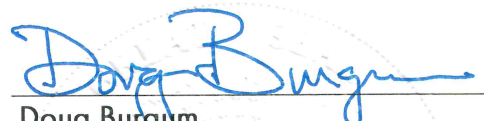

WHEREAS, the North Dakota Insurance Department regulates the insurance marketplace in the state and promotes competitiveness among companies, while advocating for the fair treatment of consumers; and

WHEREAS, the North Dakota Insurance Commissioner urges all North Dakotans to review their existing insurance coverage and work with a licensed agent to find policies that meet their needs; and

WHEREAS, the North Dakota Insurance Department is available to assist consumers with any insurance questions and issues that arise.

NOW, THEREFORE, as Governor of the State of North Dakota, I do hereby proclaim
June 28, 2023, INSURANCE AWARENESS DAY in the State of North Dakota.
